

PREVENTION / RISK ASSESSMENT

INDIVIDUAL'S NAME _____

DATE _____

Consider normal and unusual risks for the individual in each area and discuss preventive measures, as well as strengths and assets the individual may bring to bear on the issue. The Division values the balancing of rights and risks. The Division tasks the planning team (individual and/or guardian included) with making good choices and implementing reasonable safety and prevention measures. The assessment should be appended to or its conclusions recorded in the annual individual service plan.

List specific risks	What is the teams (individual, guardian, support coordinator, etc.) evaluation of the risk? Have the risks/benefits been weighed?	What can be done differently to prevent these safety risks? What strengths/assets does the individual have toward prevention?	Who can help with prevention measures?	What supports would minimize the risks?	Who can provide the supports?
Home
Work/School
Leisure

Continue on additional pages if more space is needed.

See reverse for ADA disclosures.

List specific risks	What is the teams (individual, guardian, support coordinator, etc.) evaluation of the risk? Have the risks/benefits been weighed?	What can be done differently to prevent these safety risks? What strengths/assets does the individual have toward prevention?	Who can help with prevention measures?	What supports would minimize the risks?	Who can provide the supports?
Community
Health
Other

Equal Opportunity Employer/Program ♦ Under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Department must make a reasonable accommodation to allow a person with a disability to take part in a program, service, or activity. For example, this means that if necessary, the Department must provide sign language interpreters for people who are deaf, a wheelchair accessible location, or enlarged print materials. It also means that the Department will take any other reasonable action that allows you to take part in and understand a program or activity, including making reasonable changes to an activity. If you believe that you will not be able to understand or take part in a program or activity because of your disability, please let us know of your disability needs in advance if at all possible. This document is available in alternative formats by contacting: 602-542-6825.